

designing water

October 17–18, 2018

h3 Water is the most compelling and consequential design matter of the 21st century. Not just a life source or a source of beauty, water has crucial social, cultural and symbolic functions and plays an essential role in all living systems.

International scholars and practitioners in garden design, landscape architecture, architecture, urban design and ecology convene to discuss and advance concepts of and strategies for designing water from the scale of a singular garden feature to integrated regional systems.

Longwood Gardens is located on US Route 1, about 3 miles northeast of Kennett Square, PA.

How Many Miles to Longwood?

Philadelphia, PA – 30

Wilmington, DE – 12

Valley Forge, PA – 28

Lancaster, PA – 43

Baltimore, MD – 72*

Washington, DC – 110*

New York, NY – 130

*To save on time and tolls when driving in from Baltimore, MD, Washington, DC and other areas south, take I-95 North, cross the Susquehanna River, go through one toll, and immediately take Exit 93 for Route 222 (in Maryland). After exiting, turn right onto Route 222 (Jacob Tome Rd.). Almost immediately the road becomes Route 275 (Don't continue on Route 222, which turns to the left). A few miles later when Route 275 ends at a "T" intersection, make a right turn onto Route 276. Take Route 276 to Route 1 North, which in approximately 4 miles crosses into Pennsylvania. Stay on Route 1 beyond Kennett Square until you reach Longwood's entrance ramp.

To find directions using an internet directions website, please use the following address for Longwood Gardens:

1001 Longwood Road, Kennett Square, PA 19348

If your GPS does not recognize the 1001 Longwood Road address, we suggest trying the addresses of a couple of our neighbors:

Longwood Fire Company

1001 E. Baltimore Pike

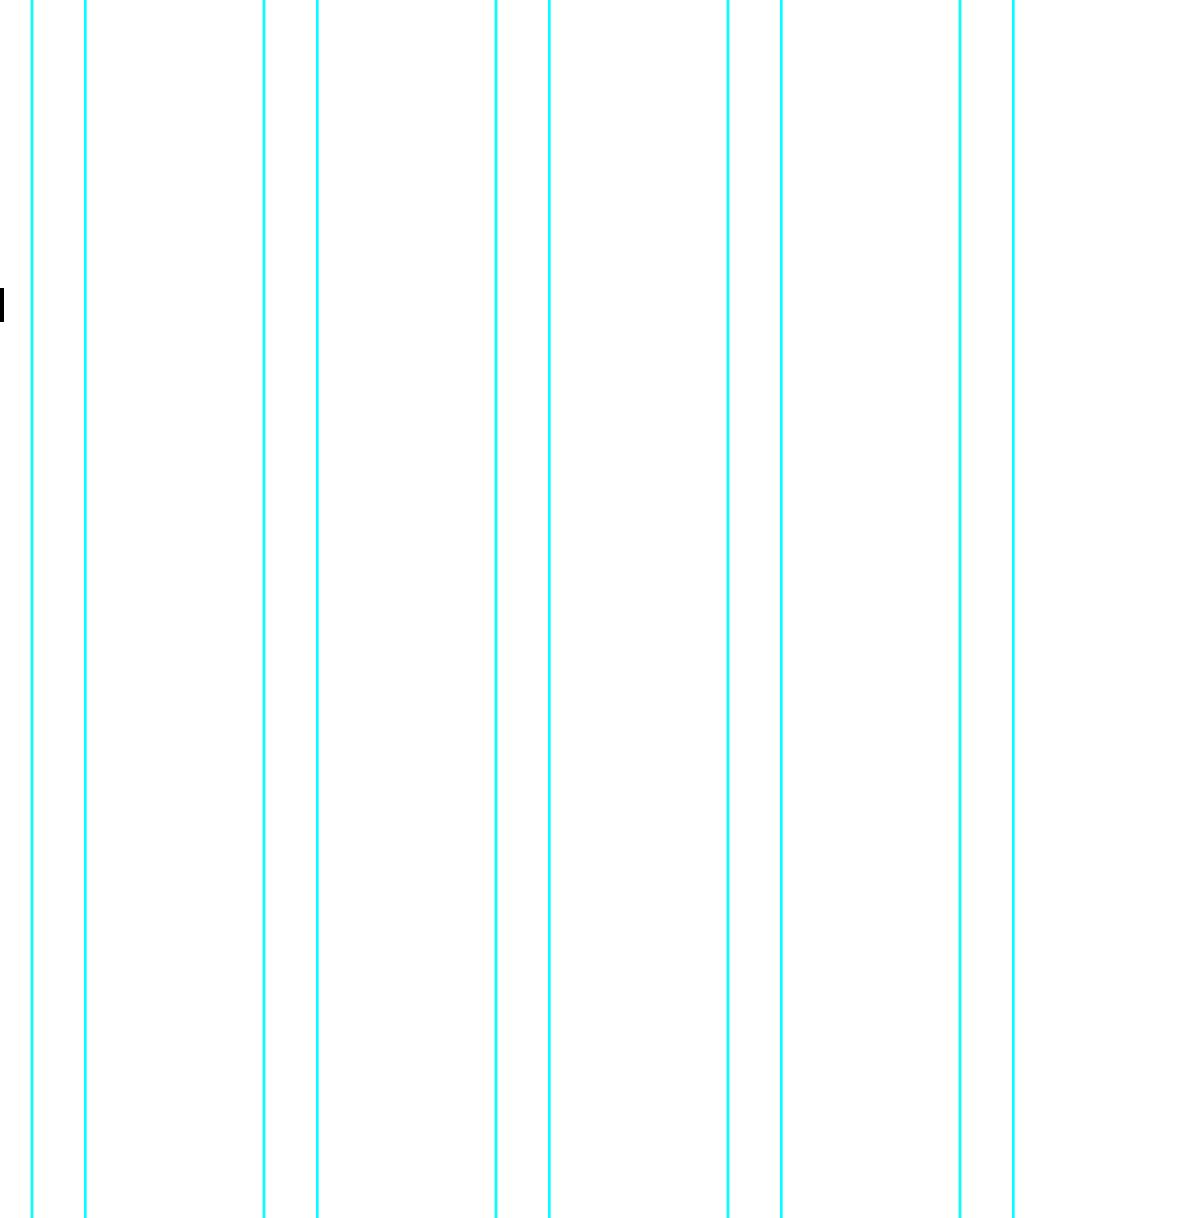

Kennett Square, PA 19348

Chester County Visitor's Center

Parking

We offer free on-site parking in our tree-lined lot. During peak visitation times, free off-site parking may be used if our on-site lot is full. Transportation is provided between the off-site parking and the Visitor Center entrance. Please follow the signage and note the Longwood staff members directing traffic on peak visitation days.

Reserved handicapped parking is available near the entrance. Guests may drop off passengers at the entrance using the double traffic lane in front of the Visitor Center.

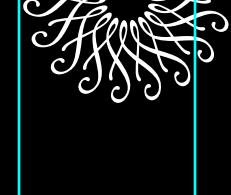

Two charging stations for plug-in electric/hybrid cars are available in our Visitor Center Parking Lot. Charging stations have the industry standard "J1772" plug and operate with a 240 volt, 30 amp AC circuit. They are available to guests free of charge.

The background of the slide features a vibrant, abstract watercolor pattern. It consists of swirling, organic shapes in shades of green, yellow, and hints of blue and orange. The colors are blended together in a fluid, expressive manner, creating a sense of movement and depth. This artistic backdrop serves as the primary visual element for the presentation.
